2010 VIOGNIER

Bien Nacido Vineyard

James Suckling

92 pts “A pretty and balanced white with white peaches, kiwi and hints of lemon grass. Full and flavorful with bright acidity and a spicy finish. Intense finish. Complex finish. Drink now.”

Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar - Issue 159

89 pts “Green-tinged yellow. Highly fragrant, spice-accented aromas of citrus fruits, apple and nectarine. Fresh and light on its feet, with good depth to its floral honey, orange and orchard fruit flavors. In a delicate style for the variety, this viognier finishes with very good cut and length.”

Kathy Marks Hartesy pick of the week for Oct 19–26, The New Times 2011 Issue 12

“This classic Rhone white is so pretty and elegant, no one would imagine you paid so little for it at $20 retail. It offers intriguing aromas and flavors of apricot, nectarine, and white peach, with notes of minerals, spice, and fruit blossoms. It’s made by the talented winemaker Clarissa Nagy, who’s also the consultant for the famed Bonaccorsi Wines in Santa Barbara County. Pair it with a cheese plate with feta, fontina, gruyere, and/or Monterey Jack; main dish salads that combine fruit, nuts, and greens; sweet-sauced duck breast; or Thanksgiving dinner. It’s available at Gather in Arroyo Grande, Vintage 1255 in SLO, Olde Town Market in Orcutt, and Los Olivos Grocery.”
